Foreword

As each new generation brings on its new concepts, ideals, and character, we, the staff of the Medinian, turn from traditional yearbook style, and from the fragments of memories of life and events, to write the story of the 1971 Medinian.

It is only too clear that this school, any school, cannot survive without help from a group of people who must also withstand a great deal of abuse from the cynically-minded of the school community. They are the bridge between calm and chaos.

Medina is fortunate in that it has an administration and faculty who are attentive to the current problems and who make no pretense to infallibility. There is none of the "ivory tower" attitude that other schools might have to suffer with. It tries to relate to the problems brought before it and, if not in agreement, will at least give constructive reasons for the decisions made.

Another group of people does its work quietly and diligently. It is this group, the workers in the cafeteria, the janitors, and counselors, which keeps any school moving, in the most physical sense of the word. They feed us, clean up, try to solve our problems, and often go unthanked by the ungrateful. We owe them a great deal of credit. Maybe someday they will receive it.

Cafeteria Workers: Front Row, left to right: Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Karaffa, Mrs. Kern. Second Row, left to right: Mrs. Summers, Mrs. Fiser. Back row: Mrs. Palinchik, Mrs. Delisle, Mrs. Trainor, Mrs. Luethy, Mrs. Failor

Psychological Staff: Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Larson, Mr. Shuman

Mrs. Sellers, Miss Trares, Miss Devine, Mrs. Elrick, Mrs. Burke, Mr. Elrick, Mrs. Stahnke, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Lucas, Mrs. Neptune. Absent: Mrs. Heiges.

Librarians: Mrs. Mary Hubbard and Mrs. Marie Wolfe check up on the latest in good books. Wonder what they're about!

If, for no other reason, we study English to learn about other uses besides obscenity. The MHS English department offers all kinds of backgrounds for its students, from Chaucer and Shakespeare to Pearl Buck to business English and composition.

English

"And if you're all good little kiddies, I'll only give you 46 essay questions on Lord of the Flies," says Mrs. Elrick.

We all know that Heritage class can be nerve-racking at times, but Mrs. Neptune seems to have gone berserk!

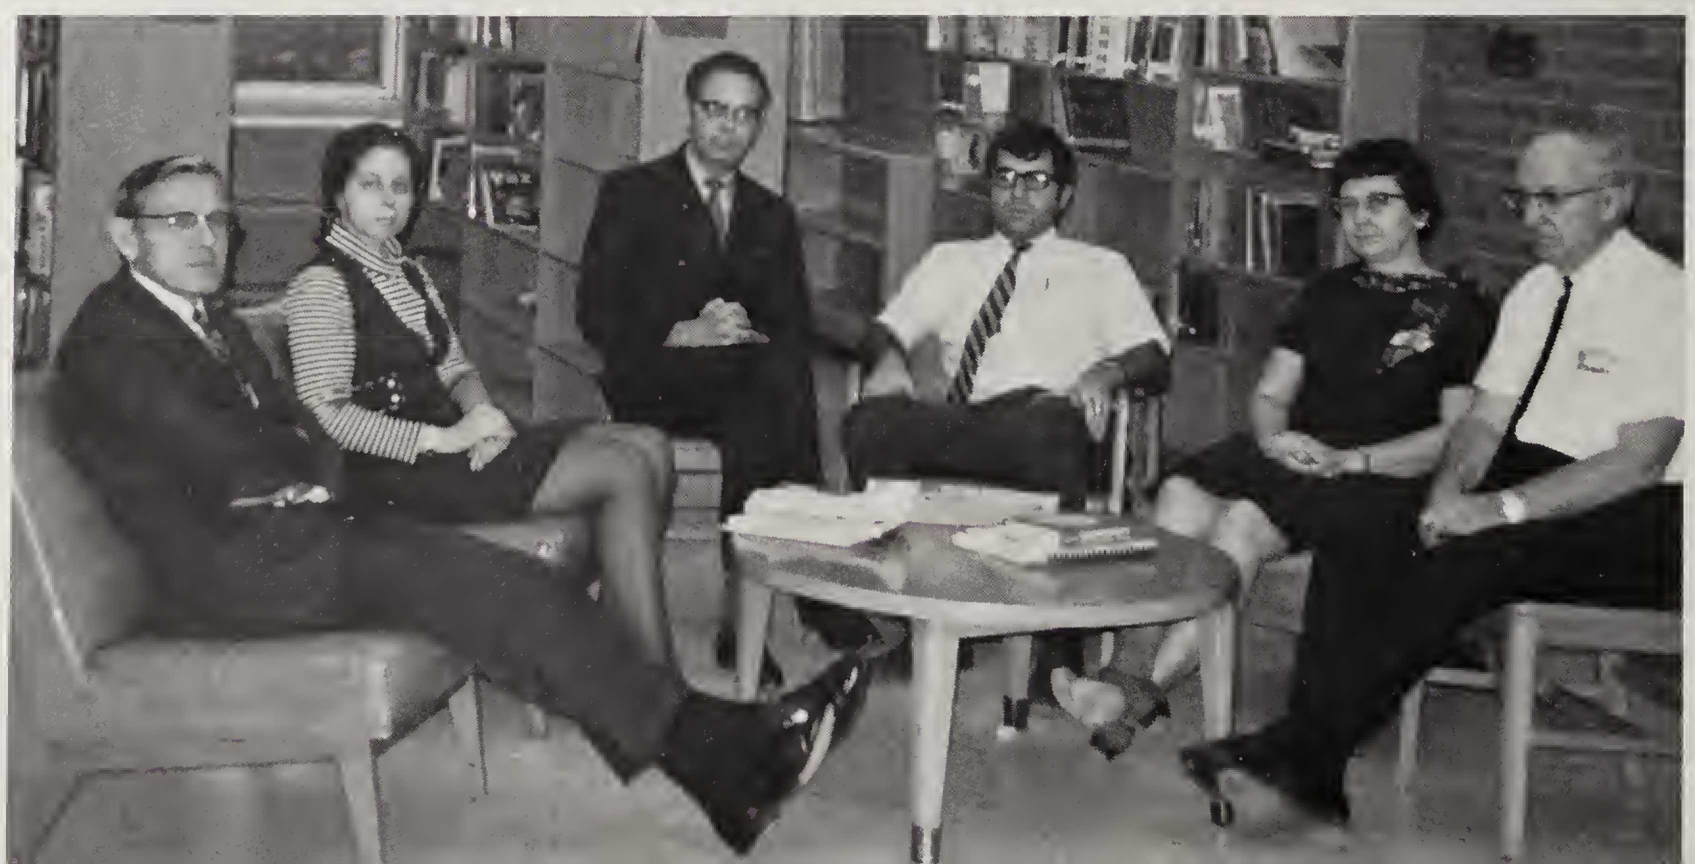
Miss Lucas "grins and bears it" during class.

Mathematics

Mr. Paidas is the only geometry teacher who laughs about triangles!

"Alright, who threw the eraser out the window?" asks Mrs. Whitman.

Mr. Haas, Miss Cross, Mr. Brewer, Mr. Paidas, Mrs. Whitman, Mr. Insprucker

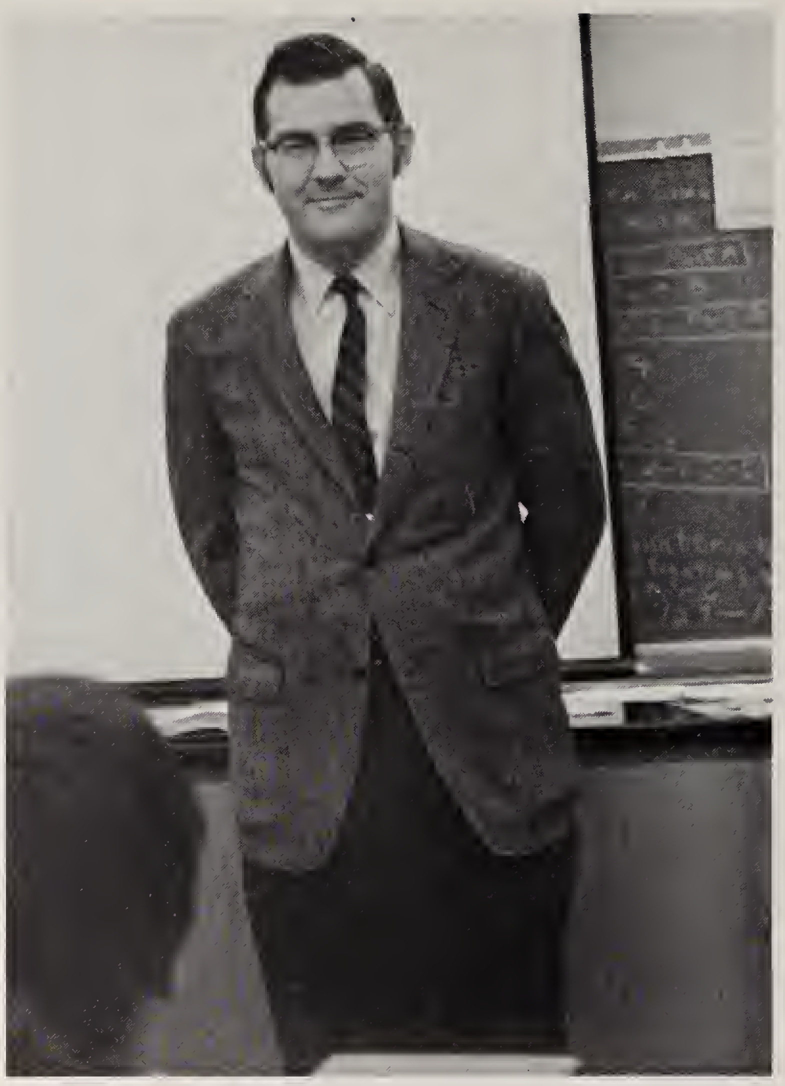


"You can't divide, that's your problem," says Mr. Haas.

Mathematics has always been a necessity, but in our modern world it is impossible to live without it. Medina offers a large variety of courses from general math to Advanced Placement Math including all new phases of learning.

"That's the longest problem I've ever seen," exclaims Miss Cross.

Miss Lemon leads a class discussion in Earth Science



Mr. Graham smiles at the thought of the test his students are taking. Tsk tsk!

"That's the last time anyone is going to put a frog in my pocket," says Mr. Walker.

Science

Miss Lemon, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Graham, Mr. Robson, Mr. Walker, Mr. Swinglish

Science has grown enormously in the past few years as we continue to learn more and more of our beginnings, our future, and our accomplishments in this world and others. Through the science department MHS tries to let us know what is happening and why.

Mr. Robson proves that the new age of learning encompasses much besides books and paper.

Mrs. Limpert, Mr. Butler, Mr. George, Mr. Cooksey, Mr. Dailey, Mrs. Demuth. Absent when picture was taken: Miss Huddle, Mr. Vargo.

Social Studies

Mr. George has a unique sense of humor. Even American History is funny!

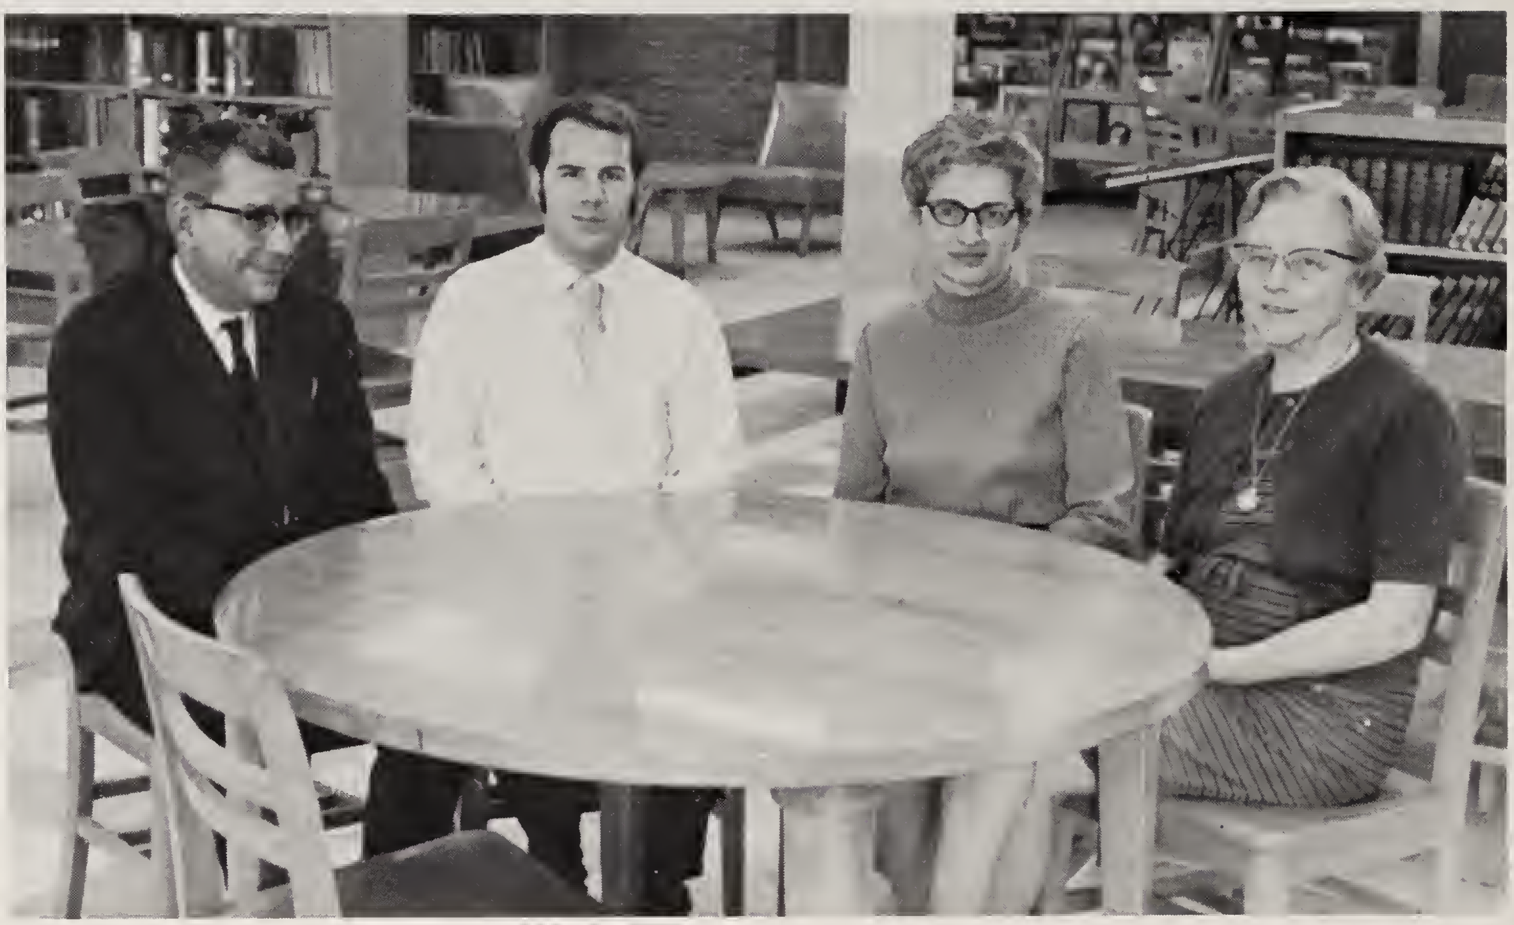
We must learn to know ourselves, and this is accomplished only by relating what has occurred in the past with what is occurring in the present and the future. Social studies gives us this opportunity. Our deeds and thoughts will only prove fruitful if they surpass and improve upon what has benn made by our forefathers.

Students at MHS are required to pursue courses in American history, civics, and economics through which we come to be integral parts of that society we so wish to improve. For the more industrious student, courses in world history, psychology, sociology, help to create a deeper understanding of himself. Health, also required, relates a sense of knowledge of one's physical self and is also a requirement for a diploma.

Mr. Cooksey is one of the new additions to the MHS faculty. He proves in this picture that actions as well as words help to relate the facets of sociology and psychology.

"And now, please take out a sheet of paper and write an essay on your reasons for taking civics. Do not include the fact that it is required," says Mrs. Limpert.

Foreign Languages



Mr. Millor, Mr. Baker, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Kellogg. Absent when picture was taken: Miss Kitska. Mrs. Couts replaced Mr. Baker December 14.

Mr. Baker leads a lively (?) French class.

Mr. Millor keeps a watchful eye on a study hall.

Mr. Eisanmann, Mr. Barbor, Mr. Cheuvront, Mr. Celidonio

Industrial Arts

"Since when does a straight line go in a curve?" asks Mr. Cheuvront of Tim Wilhelm.

To a degree, languages and industrial arts are somewhat alike. They are both of a practical nature and are meant to be used. They have both been very necessary throughout the ages and will continue to be so in the increasingly hectic and international world we live in.

Mr. Puehler, Medina's John Philip Sousa

"Can I stop smiling now," asks Mrs. Rasmussen.

Mrs. Lynne Smith, girls' phys ed teacher

Humanities is a relatively new classification at MHS and one of the most popular. It involves the fine arts, the physical arts, and the practical arts. The fine arts and physical arts give students the opportunity to use their creativity and do something for themselves as well as others. The special education groups prepare those people for responsibility in life as well as for future creativity.

Humanities

Seated: Mrs. Starr, Mrs. Streett, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Rasmussen. Standing: Mr. Platz, Mr. Bixler, Mr. Heyburn, Mr. Carey, Mr. Puehler.

Mr. Greg Ware, boys' phys ed teacher

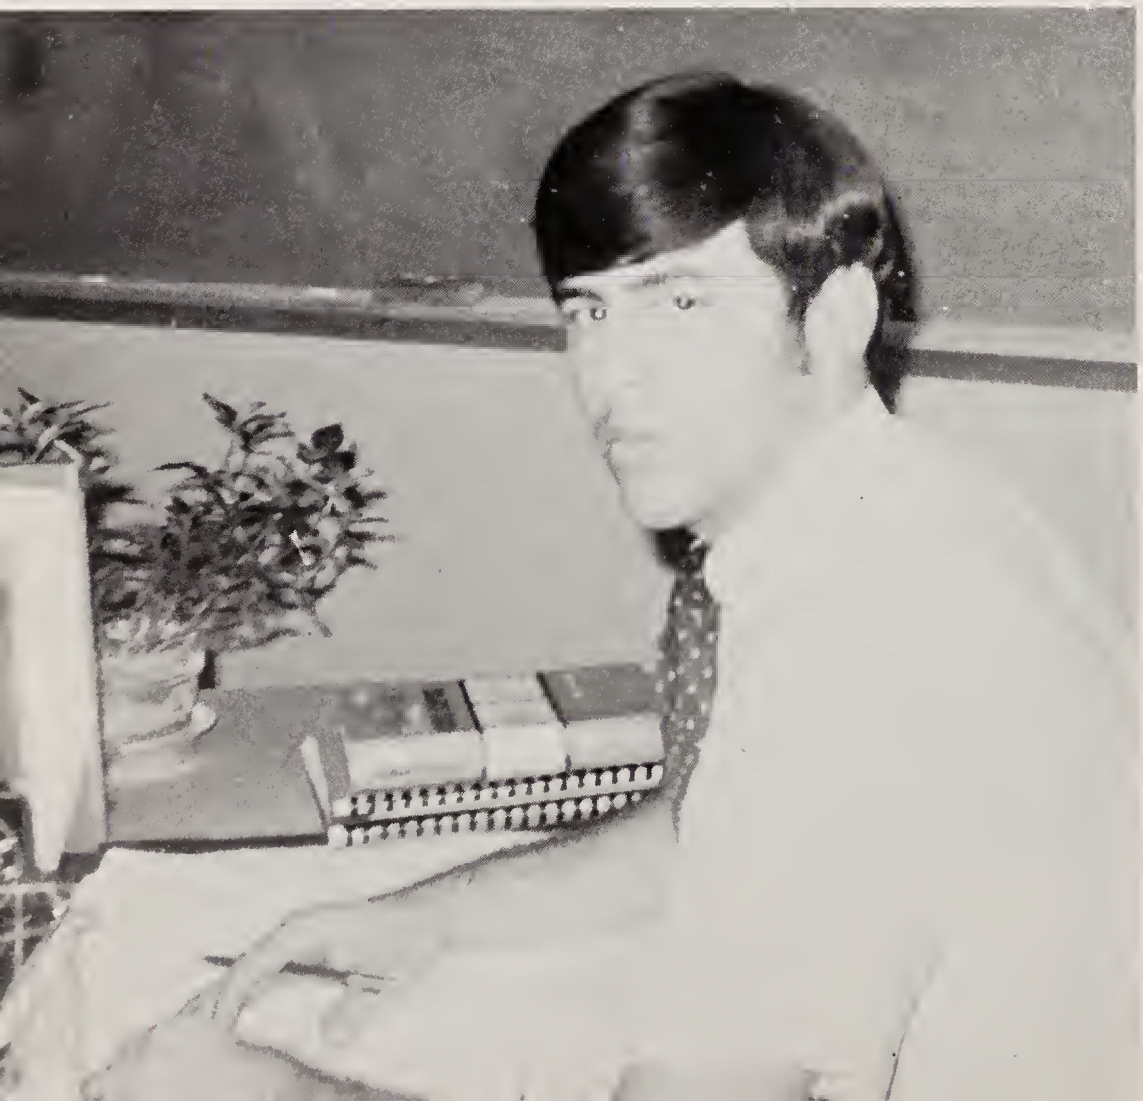
Vocational and Business

Seated: Mrs. Ettling, Mrs. Jividen, Mrs. Toth, Mrs. Oates. Standing: Mr. Holdener, Mr. O'Connor, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Calich, Mr. Calich, Mr. Weygandt, Mr. Hathaway. Absent: Mrs. Schafer

The vocational and business departments are the most practical in the school. They give ample background to those students who wish to work immediately after high school and who do not plan to go to college. The addition of a freshman work program gives an early start for those who need it.

Mrs. Oates seems to be saying "Get out of my kitchen."

Mr. Wells seems a bit startled by our camera.



Student Aids

In a complex high school such as ours, it is increasingly difficult for such institutions to rely solely on payed help to get all the "Dirty Work" done. Here we pay tribute to the consciencious few who are constantly mocked by the lazy many. Needless to say they are to be congratulated for, if nothing else, their simple care about their school. Thanks!

AUDIO-VISUAL AIDS: Harry Lennex, Jay Vigneault, Bob Grady, Dennis Baxratta.

GUIDANCE OFFICE: First row; Diane Johnson, Judy Barabas, Second; Carolyn Arrowood, Lisa Roth, Barb Sauer, Mrs. Parman; Third Row: Mr. Peters, Pam Hofmann, Carol Lucchesi, Mindy Roshon.

OFFICE STAFF: Debbie Grey, Sue Mambuca, Carole Koenig, Pam Meurer, Denise Lesko, Sue Thoburn, Pam Williams, Joyce Biliczky, Darla MacNamara, Lisa Roth.

Frosh Fight Fire With Fire

This year's freshmen class expressed their class enthusiasm through the building of one of the largest Homecoming bonfires in Medina's history. It is to be noted that they further proved their spirit by building a second bonfire when the first met a fiery death prior to Homecoming festivities. This second one, built in a single afternoon, by far surpassed the grandeur of the first.

Besides their abounding spirit our frosh provided sports thrills with excellent football and basketball teams and the first Medina freshmen wrestling team.

FRESHMEN CLASS OFFICERS: J. Porter—Vice-President, L. Rudes—Secretary, P. Koch—Treasurer, and K. McClaning—President.

This was a most successful year for the freshman football team. The year started out as a good one with wins over the three biggest SWC rivals, Bay, North Olmsted, and Westlake. The Frosh Bees went on to defeat every SWC team and end the season undefeated. This team had an offensive average of 29 ppg, and a defensive average of 2.8 ppg. This has been the best season for the freshmen since 1967.

The biggest win of the season was over a powerful Bay team to give the Bees their undefeated season. This team looks to have the best future of any team in Medina football history.

This season was the best ever for the Cross Country team. It was highlighted by one runner; Joe Hurd who won this years SWC meet with a record-breaking time of 10:03, breaking last years record set by Medina's J. Gulledge. Joe finished second in the Akron District and 56 in state competition. This years team leaves a bright outlook for future years with Joe returning as a senior.

Between the raw, unrefined musicianship of a junior high music program and the polished results of high school music lies a period crucial to the development of musical talent. Improper treatment of this period could lead to dormancy and lack of interest in excelling in the field. Medina is fortunate to have an excellent freshman music program designed to provide the needed instruction and experience vital to good musical production. The activity band meets every day to prepare itself for the years of serious music ahead of them. It performs several times per year in public and occasionally travels with the freshman football team to lead them on to victory. In the late winter members also have the opportunity of displaying their talents in competition with others in the solo and ensemble contests held.

Mr. Puehler does his thing.

Marching Band

What would a football game be without a rousing tune from a highly trained band? Nothing. Medina is fortunate to have a superb band under an expert director, Mr. Terry Puehler. Through the years we have continually been treated to some of the finest bands in the state, not to mention the conference or the county.

Majorettes: Annette Hoelzer, Karen Wiles, Sherri Quati, Karen Houston, Claudia McComas. Back Row—Drum Major Ron Maitland.

A smartly outfitted band marches out on Homecoming Night.

Beeliners End Second Year

1st Row—B. Rowlands, S. Hyde, A. Steinbach, C. Stein, D. Coleman, P. Sponseller, P. Meurer, B. Gorfido, D. Wisely, and P. Muha.

2nd Row—R. Lattimore, T. Taugher, C. Poor, D. Henschel, C. Kraus, M. Cochran, B. Anderson, L. Bruckmann, R. Jamerson, and N. Cowden.

The Beeliners have completed their second successful year as a dance and drill team. This year's activities included performances during halftime shows, bake sales, and selling Medina pennants.

Twenty-two girls made up the Beeliner squad this year, almost doubling last year's team. Under the direction of Mrs. Carol Lenk, the team spent many hours working out their routines to perfection. The result of their hard work was appreciated by all.

Head Beeliners—M. Cochran and C. Kraus.

Officers: J. Gensemer—Treasurer, J. Lemmer—Pt. Recorder, A. Guiltinan—President, M. Schaefer—Vice President, and Mr. Cotter—Secretary.

GAA Adds Fun

Girl's Athletic Association gave MHS girls the chance to participate in sports. Intramural sports included basketball and volleyball. Activities of the year were the traditional freshmen initiation, decorating the football stadium and pot lucks.

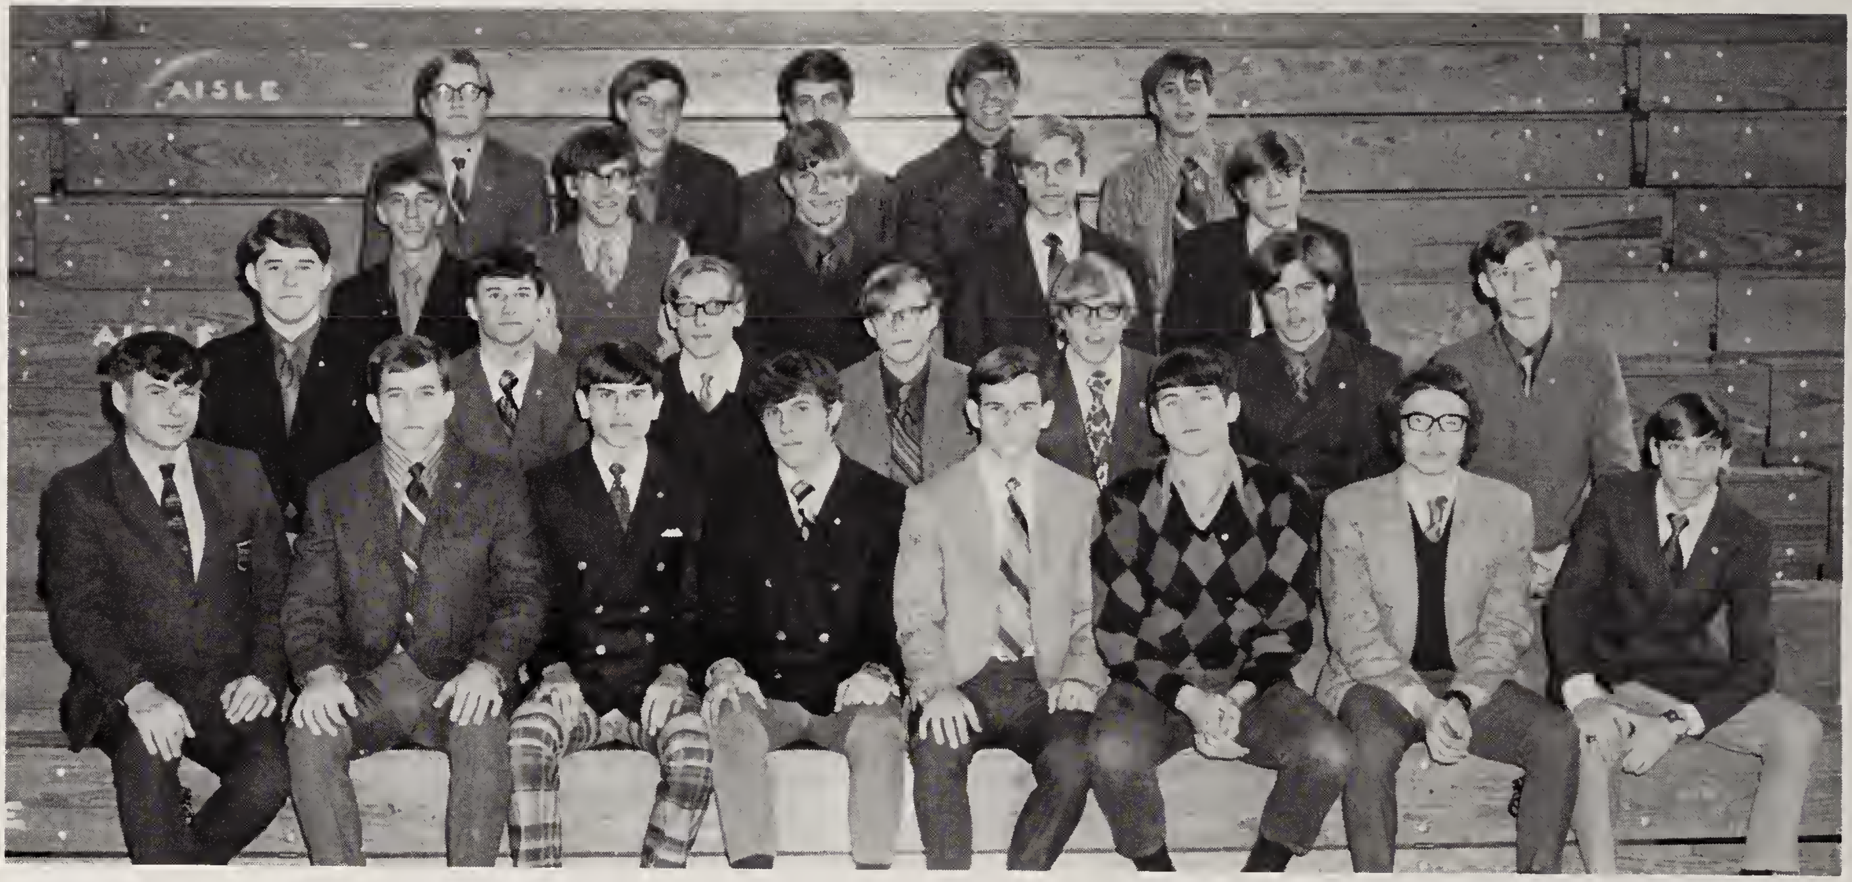
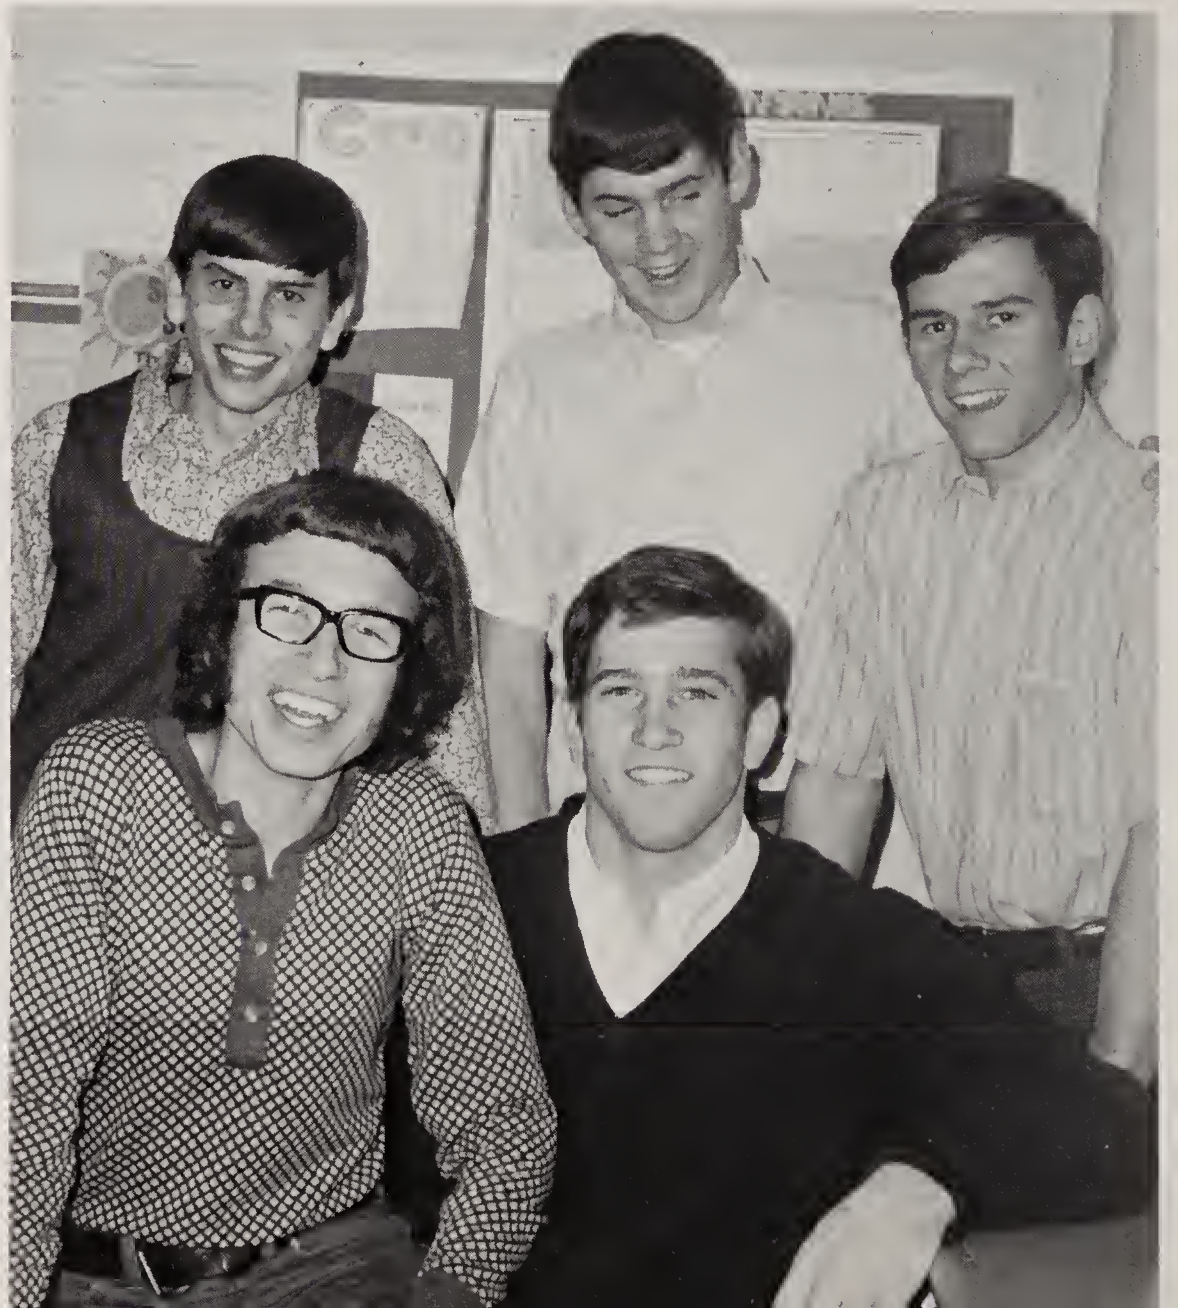
Key Club Ends Year of Service



ROW 1: Mr. O'Connor, J. Hunter, G. Rych, M. Lariviere, G. Molner, T. Yeatter, D. Machles, and D. Lariviere. ROW 2: J. Eble, P. Sevougian, A. Rodgers, C. Ramer, A. Huston, M. Arnold, and M. Koch. ROW 3: A. Root, R. Rudes, M. Seeley, B. Pike, and J. Bannon. ROW 4: L. Finley, R. Swartz, J. Rickard, D. Maitland, and T. Scheel.

Key Club, in its second year, became one of the more active service clubs in the school. During the Christmas season they sold fruitcakes under the sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club. They also repainted sleds which were given to the Leisure Group for distribution.

When the time came for Santa to arrive in Medina the club members decorated a Land Rover and delivered Santa to his local residence in the Public Square. In early March, Key Club members aided the Kiwanis in their annual pancake supper. Key Club concluded its second year successfully.



OFFICERS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS: G. Molner—President, G. Rych—Secretary, J. Hunter—Treasurer, D. Machles, and T. Yeatter. Absent—M. Lariviere.

Sophomores Come A Long Way

The production of Fantasia envolved the sophomores in the dilema of growing an enchanted forest in the lobby the weeks before Homecoming and the transfiguration of the gym into a fantasyland. The finished product proved that the Class of '73 has come a long way since their bonfire last year.

Besides these artistic abilities the sophomore athletes saw a little more varsity action this year.

Juniors Look Ahead To Senior Year

The Class of '72 displayed their artistic talents and creative imaginations in many ways this year, through their Homecoming float, decorations for Prom, and a special mural of the varsity basketball team, which was painted by the Junior Pep Club members. All of these projects required a combination of many long hours and hard work.

Other traditions which the Juniors enter include the management of the consession stand and the step from underclassmen athletes to the Varsity level.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Rita Yeager—Treasurer, Rick Riley—President, Diane Fields—Vice-President, and Marianne Schaefer—Secretary.

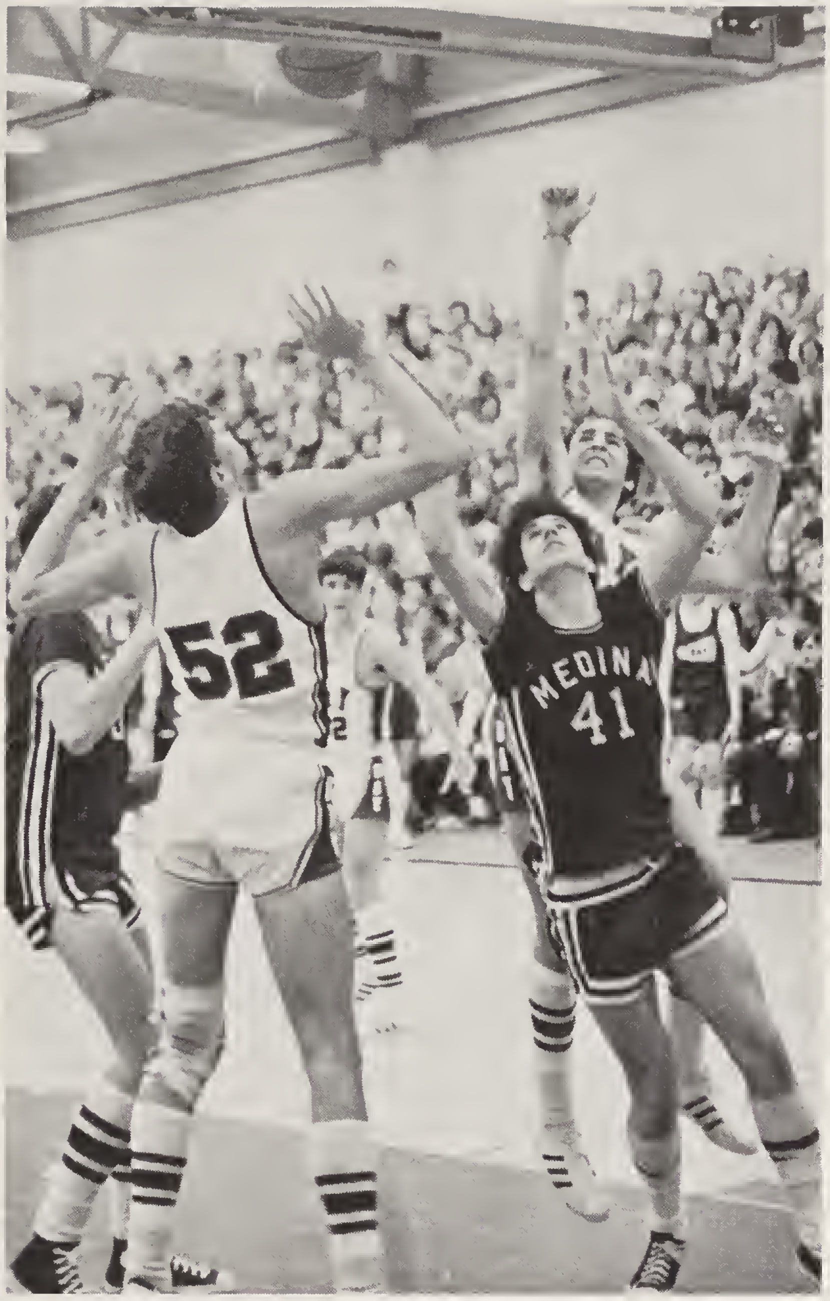
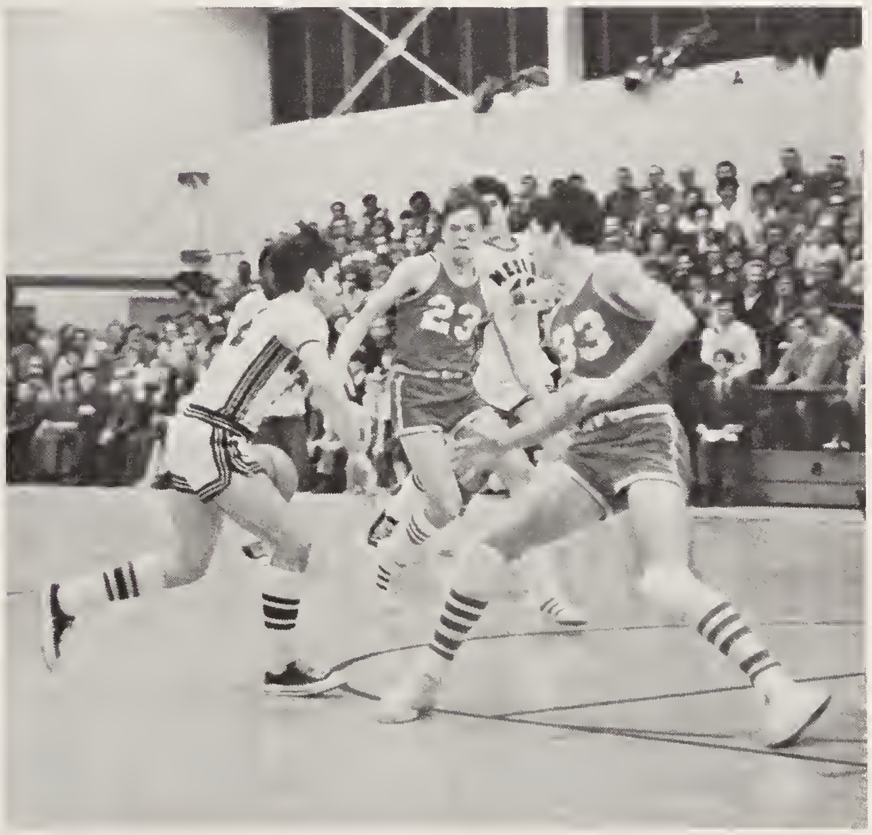
Rob Meyers, 'Basket, basket on the wall, make that ball go in the hole.'



Chris Casey falls in for a rebound as the Bees merge on the boards.



Chad Brenner drives to the bucket against Rocky River.

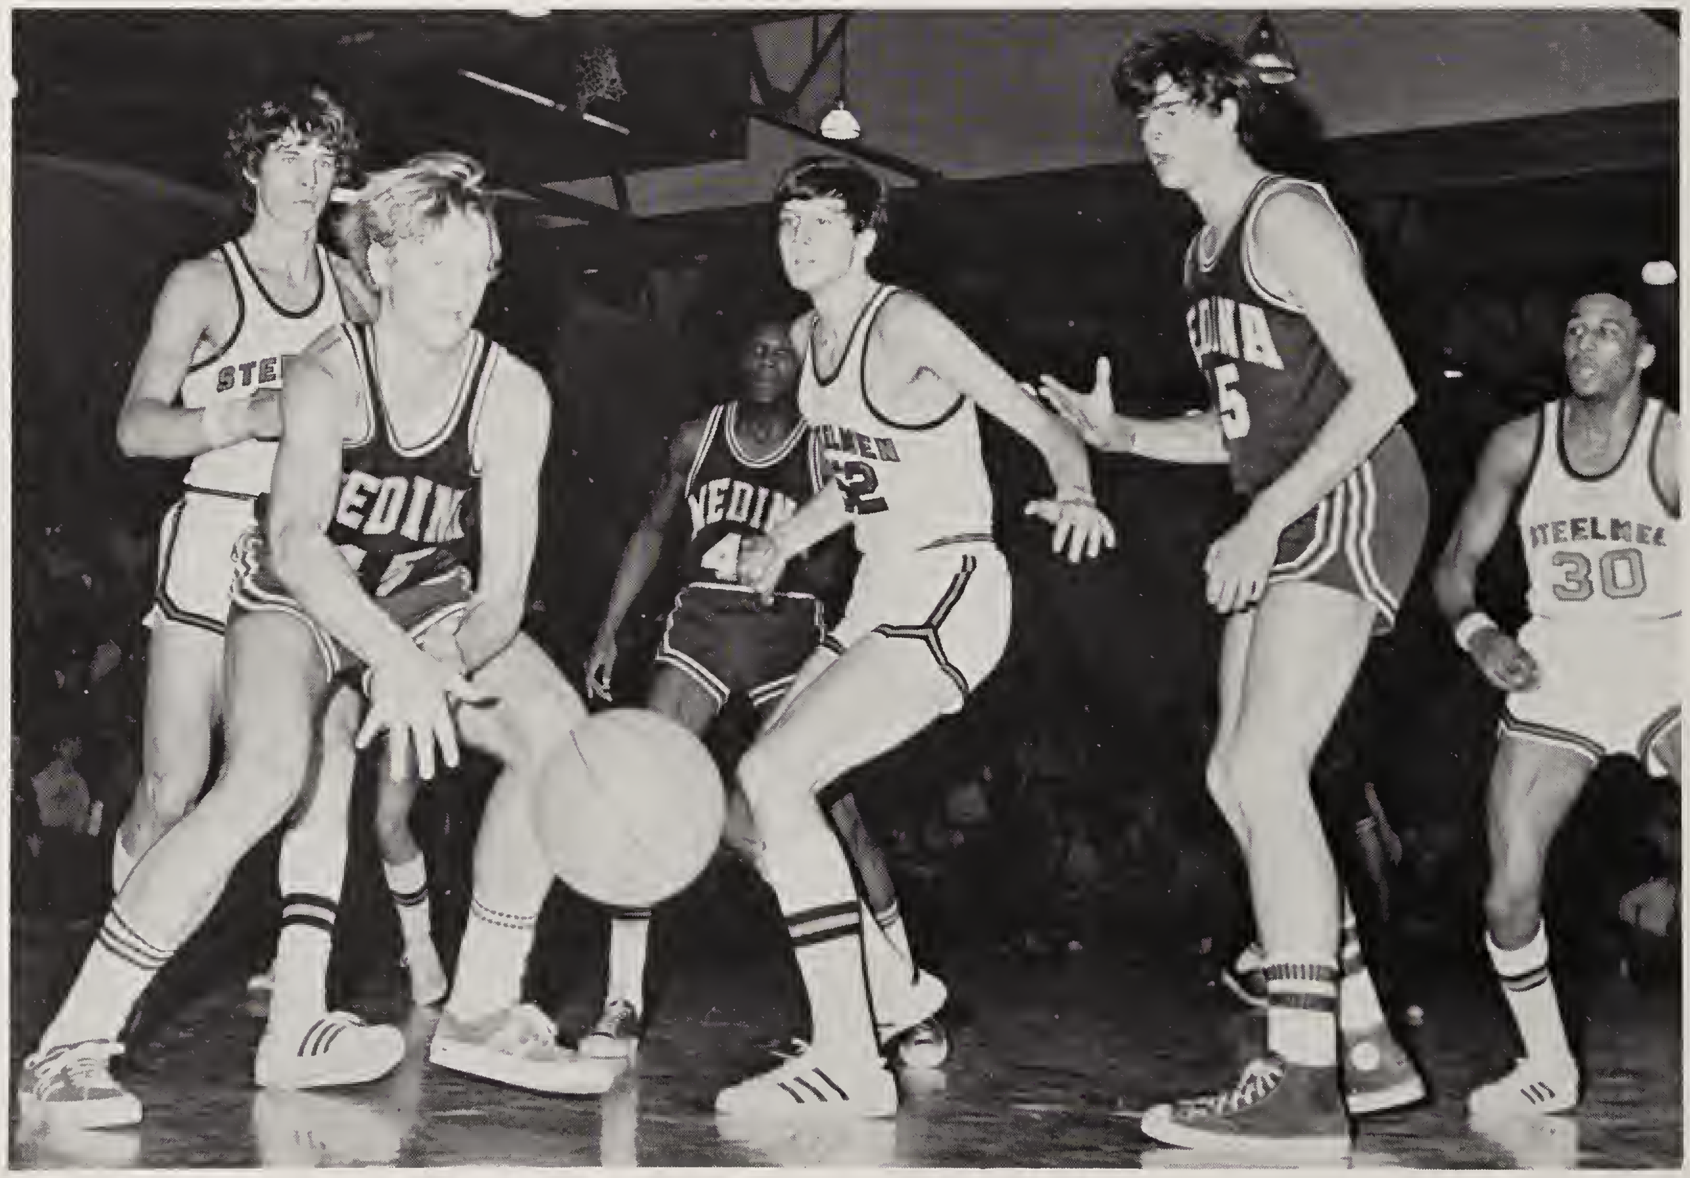
Jim Vandenberg (34) seems to be trying to hide the ball.

Andy goes after a loose ball in action against Lorain in tourney play. The Bees lost 69-64.



Little Rich seems to be having a problem with Westlake's Bob MacKenzie.

BEES END SEASON

15-5 Second Place SWC Lorain Sectional Runner-up.

MHS Cheerleaders Promote Spirit

JV: J. Schneider, C. Leedy, P. Abell, J. Bixby, and R. Vellonoweth (capt).

This year's cheerleading squads have more members, especially the wrestling squad which makes up a total of six girls. All cheerleaders promote school spirit during games and pep assemblies. Mrs. Smith, cheerleading advisor, does a fine job coaching these girls. The girls spend many nights after school practicing and the whole end product is well worth the effort.

WRESTLING Below: D. Swearingen (captain), C. Auble, A. Cornelius, G. Jones, D. Mollohan and A. Gardner.

Girls' Glee

The two choral groups featured on these pages represent beginnings on the road to musical knowledge and, hopefully, new members of Medina's award-winning Concert Choir. The most startling things about them in the past few years has been their meteoric growth in numbers, the Boys' Glee, in particular, having grown from ten members to over forty, and the girls' glee from forty to over one hundred twenty-five. Meeting every other day the glee clubs prepare for a few concerts yearly, the high point being their participation in the annual stage show, where the many individual talents of the musicians of MHS can be shown.

Seniors: A. Abramoska, N. Cowden, D. Dooley, N. Gilliland, L. King, B. LaVelle, S. Piskach, L. Roth, K. Rockwell; Juniors: G. Calvert, L. Cole, Gail Glover, B. Laker, Brenda Masters, G. Myers, K. Lazear. (Not in order of above)

The orchestra continued to improve this year and is now quite excellent. The musicians presented several concerts this year including a special one for elementary children this spring which was much appreciated by the young audience.

Maestro Heyburn calls his charges to attention.

Mike Marshall and Don Beck take time out to reflect upon the score.

It never fails to amaze people how some people are singing "oohh,' "ahh," and "ohh" and still be performing the same song. Hmmm.

Swing Choir is the newest addition to the music scene at MHS. Selected from the concert choir the group meets on Tuesday nights to rehearse its repetoire. The group sings songs of a lighter vein and performs for local community groups, school children, and conventions. It was also an integral part of Showtime II. Its purpose is to give the more theatrical individuals a chance to express themselves in a more relaxed situation and under more more comfortable conditions.

Ski Bees Hit the Slopes

". . . because of good weather, Ski Club has been cancelled." rang over the announcements many times this year much to the chagrin of our budding "Jean-Claude Killy's." However, when there is snow, the Ski Bees hit the slopes (pow) and schuss merrily down the slopes of Brandywine. Under the direction of advisor, Mrs. Toth, they are able to survive the perils that confront them and return safely to Medina High every Wednesday.

Pep Club Racks for Rhyme

OFFICERS: R. Jamerson—Sec.-Treasurer, J. Nettleton—President, and M. Lemmer—Vice-President.

Pep Club pursues the art of spirit-making through locker and hall decorations for our athletes and cheering extra loud at pep assemblies and games. Almost every night girls can be seen in ragged shorts with paint and paintbrush in hand racking their brains for some witty, new slogan. Or if one happens to be in the gym on a Thrusday afternoon, one might spy a terrified Pep Club member in the very height of the gym clinging to the rafters as she fearfully tapes up a sign. At least once every few months Pep Club members find it in their hearts to reward themselves for their many varied efforts, with a potluck supper.

Seniors

Well, we've finally made it! Twelve years of struggle against the spector of ignorance to achieve some sort of reasonable intelligence. Gone is the gore of health movies, Mrs. Elrick's essays, Mr. Elrick's essays, fire drills in 25° weather, float contests, "Showtime" and football games. In their places is the maturity of a new and alive generation.

B. Mericle and S. Promey get ready to test out a new kite during one of their free periods.

The concert band is the most refined of the instrumental groups at MHS. Forming after football season is over it rehearses every day and gives its annual concert in March of each year. This year the concert band received straight superior ratings at district contest and then received an excellent rating in Columbus.

This is a photographic rarety—an empty music room!

Concert Choir

If there was one word to describe the year for concert choir it would have to be "successful." A wide range of styles and languages marked the repetoire and the concert schedule was exhausting but rewarding. For the second year the choir received the highest state awards in Columbus April 24. The big hit of the year was, as might be expected, Showtime II which drew capacity crowds two nights in a row. Members of the choir also did well at solo and ensemble contest in Cuyahoga Falls. Both mixed ensembles received superior ratings. Superior ratings for solos went to Ray Bannon, Chris Koppelberger, and Don Beck, while excellent ratings were awarded to Patt Tucker, Greg Molner, Stan Carter, Johnn Wilder and Jim Smith.

Soloists and choir rehearse for the Christmas concert.

Showtime is Smash Success

What takes place each spring, is colorful, bursting with talent, and draws a bigger crowd than a basketball game? Answer . . . Showtime II. For the third year the music department pulled out all stops and really gave its audience their money's worth. This years' extravaganza was put forth by an incredible 250 people piled all over the stage on risers, boxes, and barstools. Selections came from many of the top shows of the century. Applause was loud and long and the response from the audience resembles pandemonium. It will be tough to beat next year.

Sparkling and professional choreography marked the exciting rendition of "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

A bit of melancholy hits Greg Molner as he reflects on song-lyrics.

Bill Pike and Alyce Butt do their thing to tunes from "Oklahoma". The square dancers were a big hit.

Guess who's coming to dinner? Medina's answer to the Farkle Family; Tom Kowal, Dave Surgeon, Harry Lennex, and fans.

Junior-Senior Banquet

John Burke, Senior Class president, displays his uncanny lack of humor as he presents the senior suggestion box to junior class president Rick Riley. Mr. Rios appropriately bites his tongue and bears with it.

Roast beef, baked potato, and corn were the bill of fare for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet, held in the gym May 14. As usual the event was well attended by both classes and members of the faculty. Pre-dinner laughs were provided by a display of senior baby pictures contrasted with senior class photos. The junior class spotlighted famous and infamous senior personalities in its spoof, "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About the Senior Class—But Were Afraid to Ask."

t were too afraid to ask!)

A scene from the after-banquet entertainment, "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About the Senior Class—But Were Afraid to ask." Lel Somogyi as Jerry Keiper drags his proverbial slide rule with obvious consequences.

Mr. Rios and company are intent upon the meal. Yum!

Junior-Senior Prom

The royal family. Attendants Jeff Johnson and Marianne Cochran, Queen Nancy Gilliland, Junior Class President Rick Riley, and King Terry Starkey.

May 15 was truly a night to remember as elegantly attired couples danced the night away at the Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Summit Mall. The theme "We've Only Just Begun" was perfect and the decor truly regal. The music was right up-to-date but was danceable. The big moment came when Terry Starkey and Nancy Gilliland were crowned king and queen of the 1971 prom, with Jeff Johnson and Marianne Cochran the attendants.

As one would expect, John Burke was the first to offer his congratulations to the queen.

Jeff and Marianne have a quiet dance together.

For once the band was good!

A comfortably crowded dance floor provided for a great evening.

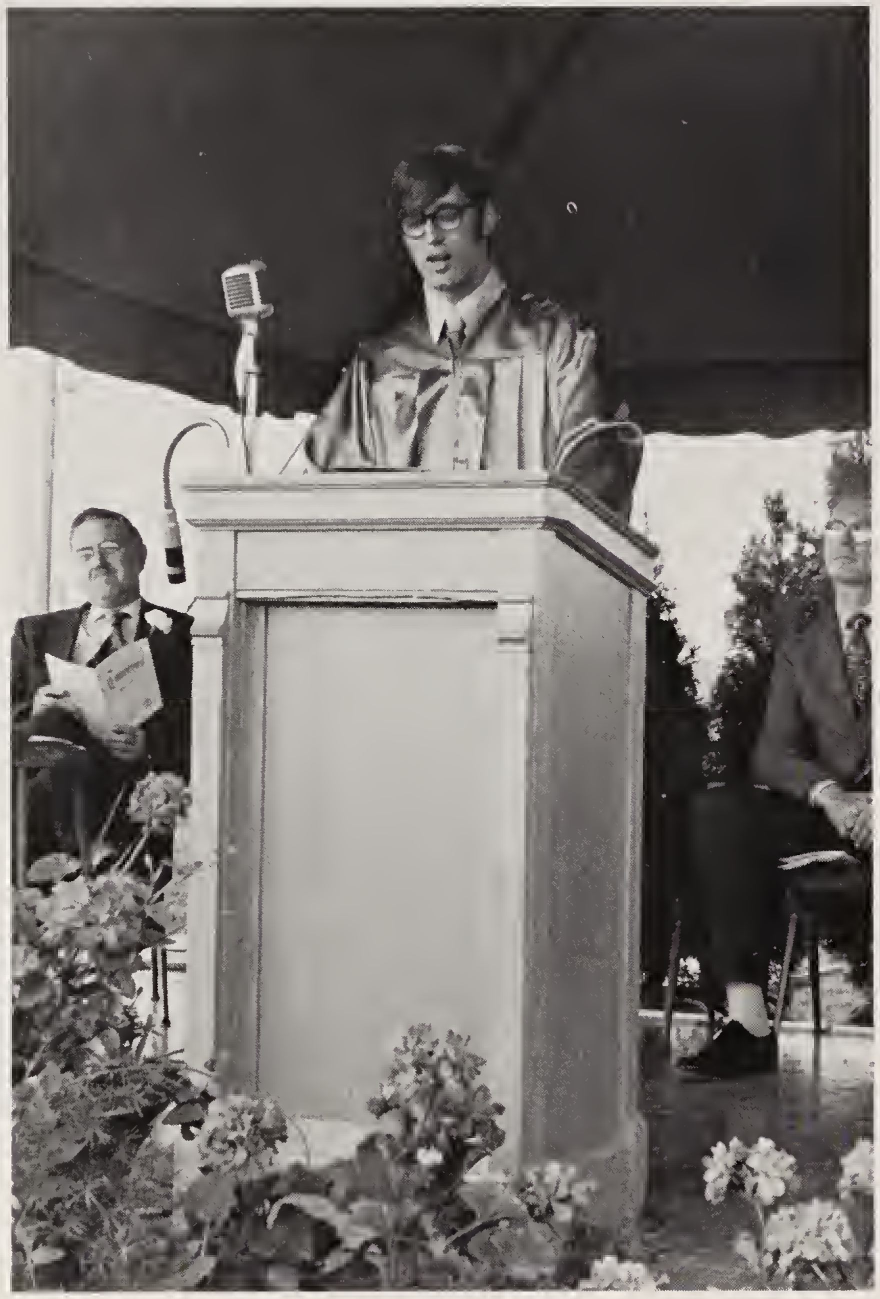
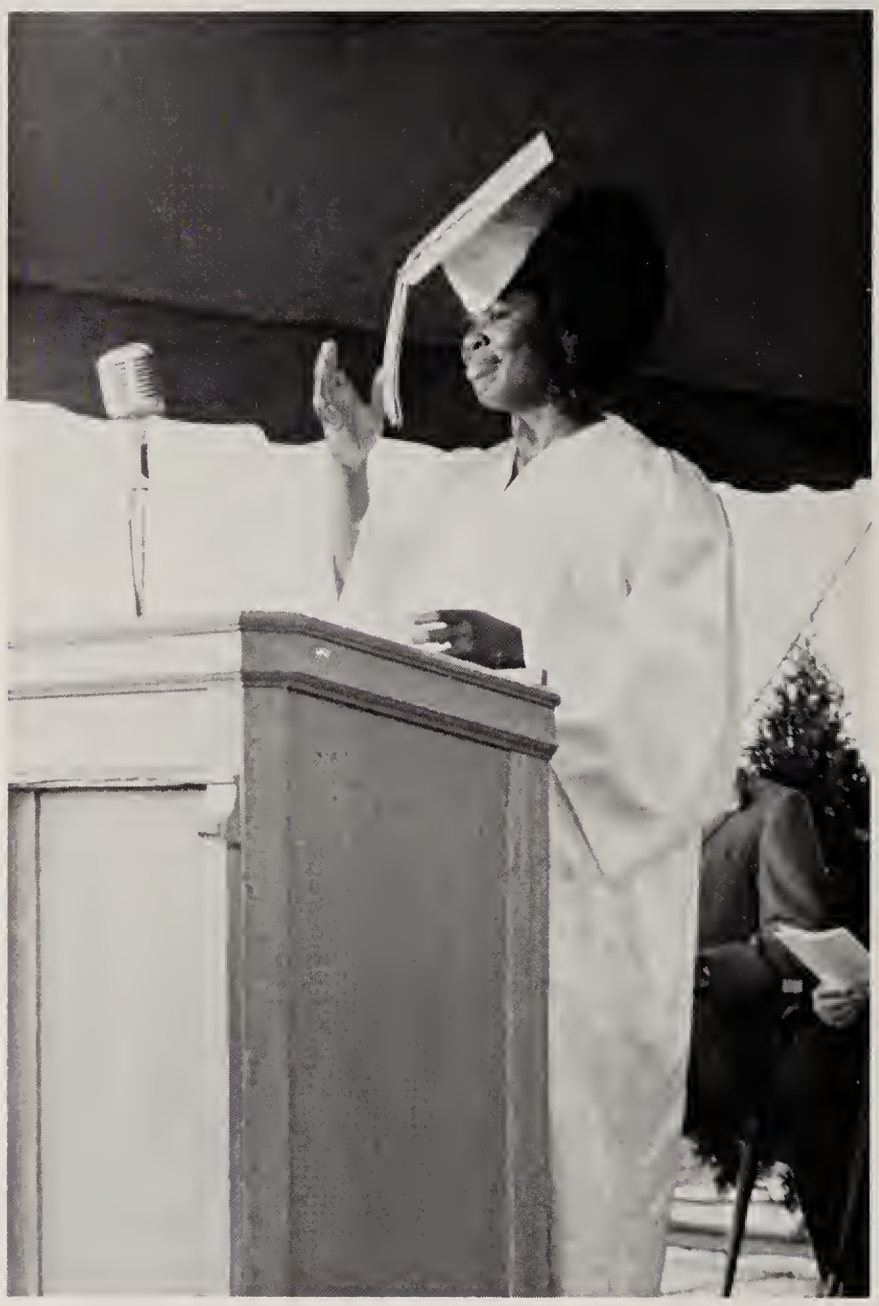
Graduation 1971



John Burke, senior class president, whose speech, "Between Worlds" was sparked by a startling rocket blast-off.



Lynda King was the first speaker, and after encountering difficulties with her cap, she proceeded with her address, "The Essence of You."

Graduation 1971 was held under ideal weather conditions, everything was perfect and the heat subsided enough to allow some degree of comfort. With a total of 263 graduates the class of '71 was the largest yet and the last class under 300 students in size. It was the culmination of 12 long years of tedious learning highlighted by good experiences and good friends. At the awards assembly Mr. Rios called the Class of 1971 "the" class. He couldn't have been more right. These pages prove what it was all about.

Mary Lemmer gives Mr. Rios a last-minute touch-up before the ceremonies.

Anxiety and memories fill these seniors moments before the end of it all.

The long wait is about to end.

A future graduate leads several 1971 seniors to the stadium.

The long awaited moment arrives as seniors march in procession.

The school board, Mr. Rios, and Reverend Sundberg "review the troops."

Reverend Roland Sundberg gives the invocation.

Finally seated in the stadium seniors attentively listen to their speaker.

Medinian Staff Strives for Perfection

STAFF MEMBERS: P. Wilde, B. Califf, V. Wilde, J. Smith, R. Greenberg, Mr. Insprucker, B. Wilson, G. Gulledge, and R. Bannon. Not pictured—K. Neil.

BELOW: Mr. Ed McNabb, our Paragon Representative, and staff member, Kay Neil, check over a class layout before sending it to the company.

Members of the Medinian staff found, as their predecessors have, that the production of a yearbook is no easy task. It takes hard work as well as imagination and organization. Faced with the various obstacles that confront an annual staff regularly such as keeping track of ads and meeting deadlines, the Medinian staff encountered the problem of breaking in a new advisor, Mr. Cheuvront, when Mr. Insprucker left in January.

With all these problems confronting the production of the 1971 Medinian, pictures were taken, deadlines were met and another year of memories has been recorded for the students of MHS.

Medinamite Members Create New Articles

This year the Medinamite exhibited a change of pace under the expert supervision of Mrs. Neptune and editor, Libby Harriger. Each issue was filled with imaginative new articles including "Heap of the Month" and various cartoons by staff members. The paper, which is distributed once a month, contains news of school events, student opinion polls, and humorous articles. Through the Medinamite, staff members kept the MHS students informed as well as furthering their own knowledge of journalism.

Gymnasts Prepare for Spring Show

Gymnastics Club start practice in late August with a clinic in which members may limber up and learn new techniques before school gets under way. They begin their first public performances by entertaining fans during basketball halftimes. Parents and students are amazed by the feats on parallel bars, high bars, and rings. The real challenge presents itself to members in the form of the Gymnastics Show in early Spring. Each person perfects both his technique and performance for the show.

With each new year, GLC continues to be one of the most active clubs in the school; and this year is no exception. This year these girls provided entertainment at the Christmas and Thanksgiving assemblies. Who will ever forget Joyce and Joyce as the twins and Little Jody Bixby as "Junior"? GLC also provided locker decorations, pins, and after game refreshments for their basketball brothers, as well as selling student tickets to the games. They also boost school pride by selling Medina t-shirts.

Math Club Adds Fun to Figures

OFFICERS: W. Crise—President, D. Shirk—Vice-President, and J. Nettleton—Treasurer.

Math Club is open to any upperclassman with a "B" average in Math. Twice a month the club meets to discuss mathematical concepts and other subjects which they would not ordinarily be able to pursue during regular class periods. This year's activities included a trip to Lewis Research Center, a branch of NASA, in Cleveland.

B. Walden, D. Sevougian, G. Bixler, G. Myers, B. Yaekle, J. Nettleton, S. Miller, L. Riegger, M. Roshon, K. Palker, M. Favret, S. Knowles, K. Prante, Miss Cross—Advisor, G. Molner, D. Shirk, J. McCormick, B. Crise, M. Cunningham, B. Pike, and D. Williams.

This year the Contemporary Affairs Association kept themselves informed on special current events. They had many interesting meetings and discussed many problems of today.

OFFICERS: S. Miller—Secretary, B. Crise—President, and G. Molner—Treasurer

Science Enthusiasts Explore Science Fields

Science Club held regular meetings this year with many interesting field trips. One of the best, was a trip to Cleveland to tour NASA. Another interesting trip was to the Bell Long Lines, AT&T. Many projects were explored and new interests arose in the field of science.

OFFICERS: P. Sevougian—President, and P. Moine—Sec.-Treasurer.

ROW 1: Mr. Swinglish, T. Myers, G. Wiegand, P. Sevougian, M. Nos, B. Volodkevich, M. Bardy, and M. Bonar. ROW 2: B. Lyden, L. Somogyi, J. McCormick, S. Clark, B. Yaekle, K. Myers, B. Klein, and Mr. Graham.

Audio Club Presents the Noon Show

S. Tyrrel, K. Been, J. Schneider, P. Wells, A. Root, Mrs. Burke, T. Brown, T. Ziegler, S. Henderson, B. Braund, and R. Nichols.

Rob Nichols, our noon disc jockey, puts on one of the favorites of the time.

The Audio Club not only presented the Noon Show this year but also gave the students the daily Student Bulletin. Each day during third period the 'Thought for the Day' was eagerly announced to the students of MHS. The Noon Show was controlled by different disc jockeys and consisted of pop music piped into the lobby and cafeteria. This club provided opportunities for fun and experience.

Drama And Pantomime Clubs and Popularity

Drama Club Officers: Tom Zeigler, treasurer; Darlene Petty, secretary, Kathy Fleming, Point recorder, John Harvey, president. Missing: Karen Adams, vicepresident.

This was Drama Club's year to really do it up big. With the largest membership ever, they staged their first production of the year, "Up the Down Staircase," which not only had the largest cast ever used in a play, but also had the largest attendance for a single night. Under the direction of the new instructor, Mrs. Burke, they also produced the second annual Variety Show entitled, "Welcome To My World." Teachers and students displayed their wondrous talents in a show comparable to Ed Sullivan or even Gene Carroll. Along with the regular children's play that was shown at the local elementary schools, the year totalled up to a highly successful and profitable season for the Medina High Players.

Experience Growth in Membership

K. Hathaway, L. Chidsey, T. Farren, J. Matthews, J. Dooley, G. Karson, J. Harvey, V. Bowman: all members of the Pantomime Club. Missing: P. Moine.

As the Drama Club grew in membership, an interest in pantomime caused a new club, the Pantomime Club to be formed. Try-outs were held and a select number of students were chosen to be members of the club. With Medina High's first pantomime group started, they practiced on Tuesday nights for their first few performances: the English classes. It was a welcome relief from regular class to see the rubber-faced mimists go through their routines, most of which were, naturally, comical. The true test of their talent came when the classes asked the mimists to perform mimes of the audiences' own design.

J. Smith eyes a totally soused Dave Moine as an air-pollution-wary Mike Warrell strides onto the scene.

Pam Moine seems to lose her composure as Terry Farren forgets his lines in a Pantomime Club practice.

Language Club Sponsors "Octoberfest"

The purpose of the Language Club is to further the knowledge of the language student. This club meets after school and members learn the customs and ways of life of other nations. At one of their meetings, the club saw films from Miss Huddle's trip to Mexico.

As one of the club's special events, they again sponsored "Octoberfest", a fall celebration with many foreign foods.

ROW 1: J. Wilder, S. Knowles, M. Defferding, and Mrs. Zimmerman. ROW 2: J. Toth, J. Swingle, S. Pryzybyla, K. Gifford, and J. Shurance. ROW 3: M. Hanshue, T. Hoopes, R. Bannon, and K. Gifford.

OFFICERS: M. Defferding—Treasurer, J. Wilder—Vice-President, and S. Knowles—President.

Mr. Millor displays his typical pose in language class.

VOCATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CLUBS OF AMERICA
VICA

Above: G. Claycomb, J. Gillium, M. Noble, J. Hill, N. Brenstuhl, E. Morse, D. Fowls, K. Hampton, B. Gallagher, D. Hanshue, P. Nichols, D. Hettinger, N. Akers, D. Williams, J. Good, B. Wadsworth, L. Hood, P. King, L. Fortney, S. Gorfido, and T. Roberts.

DCT is a part of the vocational department at Medina Senior High. Students attend school in the morning and work in the afternoon. Members belong to VICA, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America.

Some of the club's projects were candy sales, hay rides, field trips, luncheons, and state conventions. Members of the club elected Penny King and John Good as their representatives to the VICA State Legislature Day. They went to the Capitol building and attended morning sessions in the Capitol. The group also had a banquet in early May.

VOCATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CLUBS OF A

OFFICERS: J. Gillium—Parliamentarian, D. Hanshue—Sgt. at Arms, S. Gorfido—Vice-President, J. Good—President, D. Hettinger—Secretary, and B. Gallagher—Treasurer.

COE Girls Hold Office Jobs

Cooperative Office Education is designed for Seniors interested in office work. This year's group consists of about twenty girls who attend classes in the morning and job experiences in the afternoon. Mrs. Toth, the coordinator, correlates the job experience with the classroom study. This vocational education enables students to hold office jobs in the business world.

Right—OFFICERS: D. Bucksar—Vice-President, C. Phillis—President, D. Russell—Secretary, and P. Porter—Treasurer.

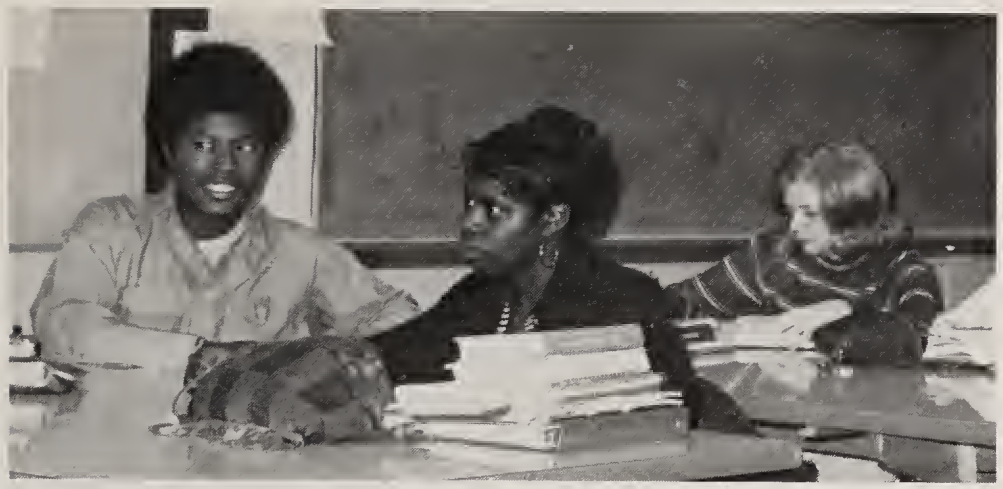
Diane takes time out from her typing to strike a pose for our sneaky photographer.



B. Hampton, G. Webster, and P. Clary concentrate on class study.

DE Students Learn Careers

Those students involved in Distributive Education attend school part time while also learning on the job skills. With their new coordinator, Mrs. Ettling, the DE members operate the school store, sponsor dances, and a W. C. Fields film festival to furnish funds to send members to a convention in Chicago during the latter part of February. This year the DE program has grown to the largest ever in Medina's history.

Left—OFFICERS: C. Murray—Historian, B. Beck—Vice-President, L. Foster—President, S. Stewart—Treasurer, and B. Mericle—Secretary.

ROW 1: D. Purvis, B. Stillman, B. Casey, B. Mericle, D. Fetzer, R. Feron, and C. Hallman. ROW 2: L. Foster, B. Beck, C. Murray, P. Clary, G. Webster, D. Dellinger, J. Promey, V. Marshall, C. King, and Mrs. Ettling. ROW 3: D. Robson, B. Bader, D. Failor, J. Poor, J. Martinez, S. Stewart, D. Nehrenz, J. Davis, and J. Conners.

Work-Study Members Gain Experience

ROW 1: B. Baker, S. Taylor, M. Erb, C. Mann, R. Stuart, N. Ward, and R. Vanscoy. ROW 2: Mr. Holdener, R. Slater, V. Olson, R. Owens, T. Baker, M. Trainor, H. Inman, and J. Reeves.

OFFICERS: C. Mann—Secretary, M. Trainor—Treasurer, V. Olson—Vice-President. Not pictured, P. Green—President.

Work-Study Club gives its students the opportunity to acquire a part time job while still in school. All members attend classes then go to their jobs later in the day. While on the job, students gain useful experience for years ahead. The main purpose of this club is to develop an awareness and an understanding of the job.

OWE Offers Trades for Students

MEMBERS: ROW 1: T. Alspach, L. Deeter, J. Groskopf, B. Rucker, M. Lucas, and D. Sexton. ROW 2: M. Monroe, S. Carpenter, D. Vance, D. Buckland, and E. Lind. ROW 3: R. Queen, W. Hettinger, R. Busch, J. Maxwell, D. George, and D. Welch. ROW 4: Mr. Calich, K. Groves, T. Hosey, B. Tomblin, G. Wills, and J. Crum.

Occupational Work Experience offers qualified students to learn skilled trades. In their classroom work they learn how to manage money and other useful necessities. Students involved in this vocational club made items to sell and they also sold candy to raise money and to learn the trade.

OFFICERS: L. Deeter—Secretary, C. Foote—Treasurer, R. Queen—Reporter, D. Sexton—Vice-President, and W. Hettinger—President.

FBLA Sends Delegates to Contests

ROW 1: Mr. Phillips, D. Buksar, B. Yeager, L. Lattimore, S. Quati, G. Davis, P. Nichols, and Mr. Hathaway. ROW 2: G. Calvert, L. Cole, T. Walter, B. Fesco, J. Simmers, S. Auble, S. Hampton, and B. Sauer. ROW 3: H. Leister, K. Thiele, D. Shaffer, P. Mallery, C. Edwards, and D. Coleman. ROW 4: D. Kemp, J. Myers, P. Meurer, S. Piskach, M. Wadsworth, and T. Bungard.

The Future Business Leaders of America again had a great year. They sent many delegates to many conventions. Medina's participants placed high in some areas. The club held regular meetings and discussed leadership and skills. The officers this year were Barb Yeager—President, Lora Lattimore—Vice-President, Sharon Quati—Secretary, Darlene Bucksar—Treasurer, and Gloria Davis—Public Relations.

FTA Acquire Teaching Skills

ROW 1: B. LaVelle, N. Cowden, D. Moine, D. Ostaff, and Mrs. Elrick. ROW 2: J. Shurance, J. Borsich, C. Fleming, B. Spencer, and P. Casey. ROW 3: S. Thoburn, C. Porter, R. Ducy, L. Wolf, and P. Williams. ROW 4: D. Johnson, B. Selzer, C. Amon, M. Simmons, and J. Burke.

Future Teachers of America is a club which has two purposes. One is to learn new teaching skills and to put them into practice. The members serve as voluntary substitute teachers for the city's elementary schools. Here they can actually experience the art of teaching.

OFFICERS: Pam Moine—Vice-President, Dave Moine—President, and Dawn Ostaff—Sec.-Treasurer.

Future Nurses Offer Services

M. Mack, A. Conners, L. Riegger, E. Hayward, S. Richardson, J. Biliczky, D. Toms, S. Hyde, and B. Streett.

Below; OFFICERS: K. Hobart and B. Streett.

Newly organized last year, Future Nurses of America is designed for those interested in a medical field.

This year the members made puppets for the pediatrics ward at Medina Community Hospital. Several of these girls are connected with Medina Hospital and they find time for active service. They also try to get speakers from different nursing schools to come to talk to them.

FHA Glimpse Into the Future

OFFICERS: Vice-President—D. Staples, Sec.-Treasurer—L. Kirby, and Historian—D. Shaffer.

Future Homemakers of America explore the art of homemaking through service projects, meetings, and lab practices. The girls practice their skills to further their knowledge. This club gives its members a glimpse into the future of home economics. These girls were always learning new homemaking techniques as part of their regular activities.

1984 IS COMING
MAXWELL'S SILVER HAMMER IS TIM

The 1970-71 school year has now drawn to a close. Many things have changed at MHS such as: a larger Freshmen class, the new dress code, new teachers, and the retiring of two teachers, Mr. John Insprucker, and Mr. Howard Dailey, and also one of the secretaries, Mrs. Marjorie Poetsch.

I would like to thank all the members of the yearbook staff for their help. I would especially like to thank Mr. Ed McNabb, our Paragon Representative, Virginia Wilde, and our advisors, who were always there when we needed them. Without their help this yearbook would not have been possible.
